manufactured in Portugal, known for beautifully glazed stoneware

Reminiscent of the dramatic landscapes and natural beauty of the Azores Islands of Portugal, the Folio Azores collection is comprised of tastefully organic stoneware. With graceful yet irregular shaped edges, Azores emulates the look of authentic, hand-thrown stoneware, designed specifically for casual dining and small bites. The reactive hand-applied glaze colors, are aptly named and inspired by the harmonious scenery of their namesake islands: Costa (white coast), Mar (blue sea), Ocaso (pink sunset) and Caldeira (black volcano).

handmade & organic appeal

Forager by Robert Gordon is designed with a carefully applied reactive glaze that free-flows over each shape to create a unique finish that is different on every piece. Featuring an unglazed bottom, this collection highlights the richness of raw materials through exposed stoneware and offers a handmade & organic appeal. From the creator himself, Robert “Andy” Gordon, he compares the signature tray design to “tree bark once used to gather things such as forage seeds, berries, and roots for the forest”, hence its namesake, Forager. Unlike any other, these enduring & functional shapes are finished with a stamp of Andy’s handwritten signature and will enhance any foodservice presentation.

FIESTA DINNERWARE

an american icon™

One of the most collected dinnerware products in the world, the Fiesta® line was designed by Frederick Hurten Rhead and introduced to the American public by The Homer Laughlin China Company® in 1936. A.V. Bleining brought the bright hues to the forefront, further popularizing the line. Introduced initially in just five colors, Fiesta was an unprecedented sensation. Today, Fiesta continues to add unparalleled character and vibrance to every table. Fourteen bold colors complement each other beautifully and can be mixed and matched with different shapes to ramp up or dial down the color range to suit your unique presentation or culinary whims. Fiesta's classic—and now famous—Art Deco design, with its concentric rings and stunning colors, making it the quintessential statement of retro American style.
